

You have ideas, a budget, and multiple complex goals for your tradeshow program and marketing initiatives. The Pure Exhibits team makes it our mission to understand the nuances of your company and the sometimes competing interests vying for exhibit space. Then we work with you to create a program that achieves a successful balance of all your goals and interests. Consider us an extension of your marketing department that offers:

DESIGN Our designers are experts at integrating the elements of your brand into a unique environment that captivates an audience, motivates your salespeople, and connects your brand with new clients.

BRAND STRATEGY As your marketing partners, we make it a priority to see your industry from an insider's perspective. We research and attend events to better understand where you fit into the big picture and how you can stand out.

PROJECT MANAGEMENT We're on call and involved through the entire tradeshow from design and engineering to dismantle and storage.

GRAPHIC PRODUCTION We have a team of professional graphic designers with a range of styles plus complete production capabilities to refresh your exhibit with graphics to match your current marketing initiatives.

ENGINEERING PRINTS Detailed, up-to-date engineering prints ensure your exhibit can be properly assembled by any team in any city.

ON-SITE MANAGEMENT At Pure Exhibits, we don't rest until every detail is wrapped up on the show floor, making it easy for you and your marketing team to focus on the ultimate goal: connecting with your audience.

EXPERT INSTALLATION You get a dedicated team assigned to your account in each city, allowing them to get to know your booth and your needs.

TRANSPORTATION Our transportation partners know the ins and outs of the exhibit and events industry and show up on time to save you money.

MAXIMUM VALUE Complete, itemized invoicing combined with budget updates as the project moves along takes the guesswork out of the billing process.

SECURE STORAGE We have more than 80,000 square feet of secure warehousing and storage facilities located in Illinois and around the world.

NATIONWIDE REFURBISHMENT Our satellite offices across the globe have full refurbishment capabilities to keep your environment looking good everywhere it goes.
